Course Description:

In a world that promotes hate, pride, and division, Christian educators are called to lead from a different source — the love of God.

Through five short video lessons (total runtime ≈ 60 minutes), participants will explore five dimensions of Christlike love — Love Initiates, Love Sacrifices, Love Abides, Love

Transforms, and Love Leads — and learn how these truths can reshape their classrooms, their relationships, and their influence as Christian leaders.

The course combines biblical teaching, theological reflection, and classroom application, offering participants both inspiration and tangible tools to integrate biblical love into their daily teaching and leadership.
